CDR FRANK G. SCHETTINO, USN
Commanding Officer, U.S.S. NOA (DD-841)

Commander SCHETTINO was born in East Orange, New Jersey on 11 January 1922. He was appointed to the U.S. Naval Academy in 1940 and graduated in June 1943 with the Class of 1944. Upon being commissioned, he was assigned to USS GANSEVOORT (DD 608) and participated in World War II combat operations in the Gilbert, Marshall and Philippine Island areas. In 1946, following decommissioning of his ship, he was assigned as Operations and Gunnery Officer on the Staff of Commander Destroyer Squadron FIFTEEN whose operations included a year of patrol and occupation duties in the sea areas off Japan and China. From 1947 to 1949, Lieutenant SCHETTINO served at White Sands Proving Ground, New Mexico (since renamed White Sands Missile Range).

He returned to sea in 1949 as Commanding Officer, USS LSMR 403 and deployed to the Far East at the outbreak of the Korean Conflict in 1950. For his close-in rocket and gunfire support while under enemy fire during the amphibious assault landing at Inchon, Korea in September 1950 he was awarded the Bronze Star Medal with Combat "V". In 1951 and 1952 he was attached to the staff of Commander Amphibious Group ONE as Assistant Gunnery and Training Officer, serving mainly in Korea and Japan during the latter part of the U. N. campaign against the Communist Chinese and North Korean forces.

In 1953 he attended the Army Guided Missile course at Fort Bliss, Texas and was then assigned as the Assistant Officer in Charge and Training Officer of the U. S. Naval Guided Missile School, Dam Neck, Virginia where he served for one year. Lieutenant Commander SCHETTINO then performed duties from 1954 to 1956 as Officer in Charge, Guided Missile Service Unit 211 at the Naval Mine Depot, Yorktown, Virginia. Subsequently he attended the Armed Forces Staff College in Norfolk for six months.

In early 1957 he became Executive Officer, USS CHEVALIER (DDR 805) and upon being promoted to the rank of Commander in March 1958 he was reassigned as Executive Officer, USS DIXIE (AD 14) where he served until late 1959. He was then ordered to duty in the Bureau of Ordnance (later the Bureau of Naval Weapons) where he served in the guided missile section of the Fleet Readiness Group until August 1962. In October 1962 he assumed command of USS NOA (DD 841) in the SIXTH Fleet (Mediterranean) Area.

Other awards Commander SCHETTINO has received include the Navy Occupation and Service Medal (Asiatic-Pacific Area), China Service Medal (Extended), Philippine Liberation Medal, Korean Presidential Citation and other area and campaign medals for service in the Pacific Ocean area.

Commander SCHETTINO is married to the former Virginia Ruth Pearson of Pana, Illinois. They have two daughters, Susan and Maria Lynn, who are attending schools in Jacksonville Beach. The family also resides in Jacksonville Beach, near the home port of USS NOA: Mayport, Florida.

CDR JOHN D. EXUM, USN
Commanding Officer, U.S.S. NOA (DD-841)

CDR EXUM attended the U.S. Naval Academy as a member of the class of 1946 from 1942-1945 and was commissioned Ensign, U. S. Navy upon graduation in June 1945. After graduation, Ensign EXUM served on board the newly commissioned cruiser U.S.S. HUNTINGTON (CL-107) in the capacity of 3rd Division Officer, E Division Officer, and as Assistant Navigator. In February 1948, he joined the commissioning detail of the U.S.S. WORCESTER (CL-144) which was commissioned in May of that year.

In September 1949, LTJG EXUM was transferred to the Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps at the Alabama Polytechnic Institute in Auburn, Alabama where he served as Gunnery Instructor for two years. In June 1951, LTJG EXUM was transferred to U.S.S. N.K. PERRY (DDR-883) and served in the capacity of Gunnery Officer for two years.

In the summer of 1953, LT EXUM was assigned as Flag Lt. for CINCNELM with headquarters in London, England. After one year, LT EXUM joined the Staff of Commander Destroyer Force, U.S. Atlantic Fleet as Assistant Operations Officer. This tour was followed in succession by an eighteen month tour as Executive Officer and Navigator of U.S.S. NORRIS (DDE-859) and then as student of the U.S. Naval War College in Newport, Rhode Island, class of 1958-59.

After graduation LCDR EXUM was ordered to the U.S.S. COURTNEY (DE-1021) and assumed command on 18 July 1959. His tour of duty was highlighted by a four month cruise designed to provide ASW training and experience to the South American Navies.

On 23 March 1961 LCDR EXUM took command of the U.S.S. NOA (DD-841). On 1 July 1961 he was promoted to the rank of Commander.

LCDR FREDERICK S. ADAIR
Executive Officer

Frederick S. ADAIR was born 25 September 1924 and grew up in Seattle, Washington. He attended the University of Washington for one year (1944-1948) and then he entered the United States Naval Academy in June 1948. Upon graduation in 1951, ENS ADAIR reported aboard USS MENARD AP-201. Aboard MENARD he served in the Engineering, Navigation, and Operations departments and made three deployments to the western Pacific. LT ADAIR attended CIC Officer's School in Glenview, Illinois and then served as operations officer in USS SAVAGE (DER-386). In December 1956 LT ADAIR assumed command of USS TILLAMOOK (ATA-19). LT ADAIR entered the Nuclear Power Program in July 1957 and reported to the National Reactor Testing Station, Idaho Falls, Idaho. There he participated in the testing and operation of the A1W large ship reactor plant prototype. LT ADAIR reported to the pre-commissioning detail of USS LONG BEACH (CGN-9) in January 1960, and was involved in the testing and construction of the ship's nuclear propulsion plant. He remained aboard after commissioning the LONG BEACH in September 1961 and served first as Reactor Officer and then as Main Propulsion Assistant. LCDR ADAIR reported aboard USS NOA (DD-841) in November 1962.

LCDR ADAIR is married to the former Mary Jane Malsbary of Romney, Indiana. They have three children, Katherine 6, John 3, and Elizabeth, 1.

LCDR WILLIAM K. HATCHER
Executive Officer — Dec 1961 - Dec 1962

CAPTAIN DANIEL M. KARCHER, USN
Commander Destroyer Division One Four Two

Captain Daniel M. Karcher, USN, was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on 4 September 1920. He graduated from Lower Merion High School in Ardmore, Pennsylvania in 1938, and from the U.S. Naval Academy in 1942.

Following graduation from the Naval Academy, Captain Karcher served as an instructor in the amphibious force training the personnel who took part in the initial amphibious landings in Africa. From 1943 to 1946 he served in destroyers ERICSSON (DD-440) and FECHTELER (DD-870), participating in Atlantic convoy operations, amphibious assaults in Europe, and in the occupation of Japan. From 1946 to 1949 Captain Karcher received graduate training in Ordnance Engineering. In 1949 he returned to sea duty as the Executive Officer of the destroyer FLOYD B. PARKS (DD-884) in the Pacific, where he took part in the Korean War.

From 1951 to 1954 Captain Karcher served in the Navy Department's Bureau of Ordnance (now known as the Bureau of Weapons), and from 1954 to 1956 he was the Ordnance Officer in the U. S. Navy Shipbuilding Liaison Office in Paris, France.

From 1956 to 1958 Captain Karcher commanded destroyers HENLEY (DD-762) and DUPONT (DD-941), and from 1958 to 1959 he was attached to the Staff of Commander SECOND Fleet. This tour was followed by a year at the Industrial College of the Armed Forces, and then by a two year assignment to the Office of the Chief of Naval Operations in the Strategic Plans Division (OP-60). During this latter duty, Captain Karcher completed the studies necessary to attain a Master's Degree in Business Administration from George Washington University.

Captain Karcher is married to the former Jane Elizabeth Moore of Winsted, Connecticut. The Karchers have three children — Daniel 15, Elizabeth 12, and Meredith 4. Although the Karchers call Pennsylvania home, they plan to reside in Mayport, Florida for the next year.
